WELCOME TO CASTLEGAIT MANOR

Abbotsford Castlegait Manor is a purpose-built care home that opened in 1998. It supports adults with mental health difficulties, elderly needing support and people with dementia. The home is divided into three small units, Barra, Coll and Arran, and each has a real sense of warmth and community. Castlegait aims to be more than a care provider, with a wide range of activities tailored to residents' needs. The experienced team works to the National Care Standards and best practice and are dedicated to improving quality of life, promoting independence and giving residents the support they need to live life the way they choose.

The staff are kind and thoughtful and provide excellent care
